

Average road fatalities 2012-2014 per million inhabitants

Legend:

- 100+ fatalities
- Between 80 and 99 fatalities
- Between 60 and 79 fatalities
- Between 50 and 59 fatalities
- Between 30 and 49 fatalities
- Less than 29 fatalities

Average for the whole of France: 55 persons killed per million inhabitants

Map of France showing average road fatalities per million inhabitants (2012-2014). The map is color-coded by region, with a legend indicating the number of fatalities per million inhabitants. The average for the whole of France is 55 persons killed per million inhabitants.

Legend:

- 100+ fatalities
- Between 80 and 99 fatalities
- Between 60 and 79 fatalities
- Between 50 and 59 fatalities
- Between 30 and 49 fatalities
- Less than 29 fatalities

Average for the whole of France: 55 persons killed per million inhabitants

Map labels include: ANGLETERRE, BELGIQUE, LUX., ALLEMAGNE, SUISE, ITALIE, ESPAGNE, Océan Atlantique, Méditerranée, and various French cities (Lille, Amiens, Rouen, Caen, Paris, Châlons-en-Champagne, Metz, Strasbourg, Rennes, Nantes, Orléans, Dijon, Besançon, Lyon, Clermont-Ferrand, Limoges, Poitiers, Bordeaux, Toulouse, Montpellier, Marseille, Ajaccio, Mamoudzou, St-Denis, Cayenne, Fort-de-France, Baïe de Terre).

Scale: 0 to 200 km.

© OSF 2014 - IGN GéoFla

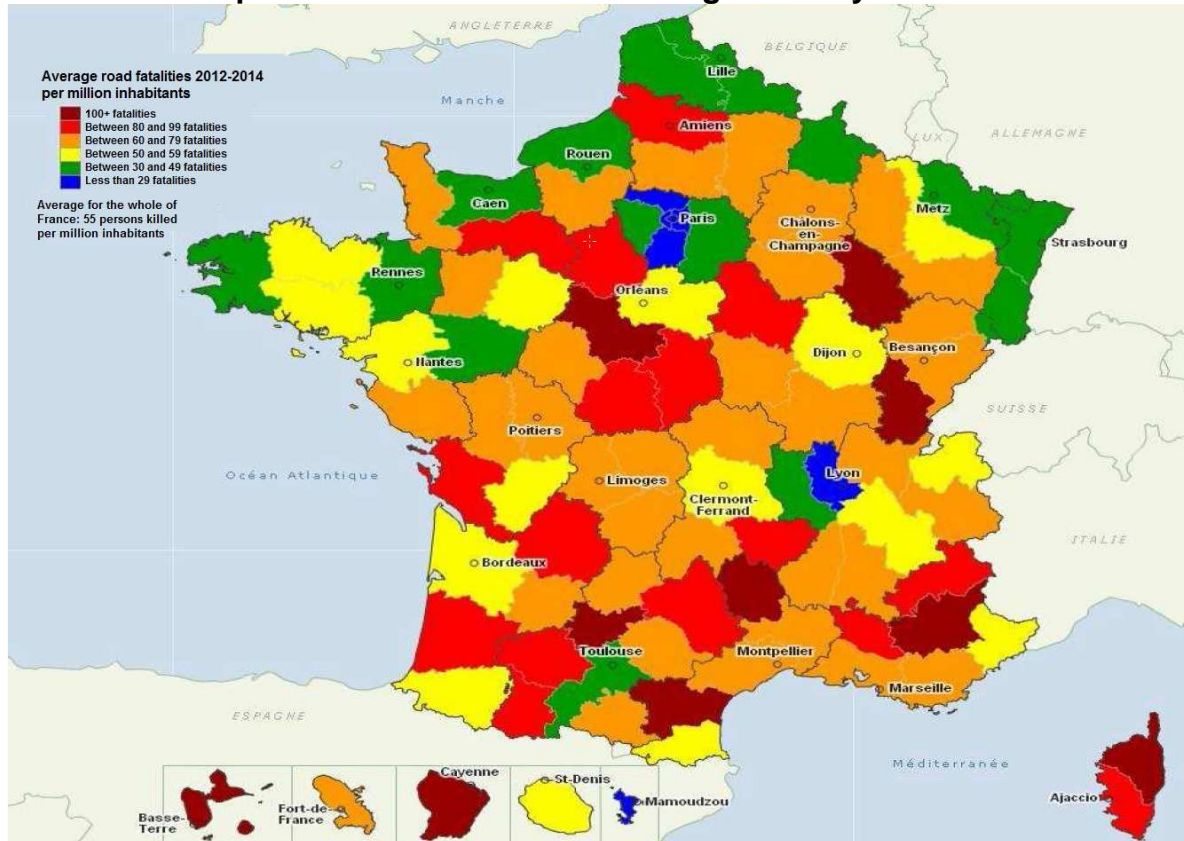

Evolution in mainland France between 2010 and 2014: -15,2%

- More than 5%
- Between 0% and +5%
- Between -7,5% and 0%
- Between -15% and -7,5%
- Less than -20%

Map showing the evolution in mainland France between 2010 and 2014, categorized by percentage change. The map includes labels for major cities (Paris, Lyon, Marseille, Bordeaux, Toulouse, Montpellier, Clermont-Ferrand, Limoges, Poitiers, Nantes, Rennes, Caen, Rouen, Amiens, Lille, Metz, Strasbourg, Besançon, Dijon, Orléans) and surrounding countries (Belgique, Allemagne, Suisse, Italie, Espagne, Angleterre, Luxembourg). The map also shows the Atlantic Ocean (Océan Atlantique) and the Mediterranean Sea (Méditerranée). Insets show overseas territories: Basse-Terre, Fort-de-France, Cayenne, St-Denis, Mamoudou, and Ajaccio.

Mapping Road Fatalities – 2014 – Counties

Road fatalities per million inhabitants – Average over 3 years 2012-2014

Evolution of Road Fatalities – Years 2010 to 2014

